Legislation We Are Working On

NEW LEGISLATION:

Rolling Thunder ®, Inc. is in full support for this New legislation, H.R.6734. H.R. 6734- Full Military Honors Act of 2018 Sponsor: Reps. Bishop, Mike (R-MI 8) Introduced 9/7/2018 Last Action: Referred to the House Committee on Armed Services. Washington, September 10, 2018 "America's POWs and Medal of Honor recipients have sacrificed immeasurably in service to the United States - regardless of their rank." WASHINGTON - Congressmen Mike Bishop (MI-08), Sam Johnson (TX-03), and House Veterans' Affairs Committee Ranking Member Tim Walz (MN01) today announced the introduction of the Full Military Honors Act of 2018 (H.R. 6734) to allow enlisted Medal of Honor recipients and Prisoners of War (POW) who are eligible for burial at Arlington National Cemetery to receive a full military honors burial, which includes an escort platoon, a military band, and a caisson (horse drawn casket) if available. Currently, full military honors are reserved for commissioned officers, warrant officers and senior. I urge all members of Rolling Thunder Inc. to contact your respective members of Congress and ask for co-sponsorship as soon as possible so the bill can be brought out of committee (House Armed Services Committee) to the House floor for a vote before the end of this session of Congress. "America's POWs and Medal of Honor recipients have sacrificed immeasurably in service to the United States - regardless of their rank."

From Gus Dante:

H.R. 504-Sponsor: Rep. Leonard Lance (R-NJ-7) - To fly the POW/MIA flag ALL DAYS that the American flag is displayed over the U.S. Capitol and the White House. This legislation has been held up in the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitution and Civil Justice for the last two Congresses. H.R. 504 has no CBO (Congressional Budget Office) which makes decisions on monies used for legislation. This does not apply to H.R. 504. I would like you to take some time to call members of the Judiciary and ask them to move H.R. 504 out of committee to the floor for a vote. If your representative is not on the Judiciary, ask them to co-sponsor H.R. 504 and to call John Byers at Rep. Lance's office at 202-225-5361 to sign on. Attached is a list of representatives that serve on the Judiciary and Subcommittee, and a sample letter.

At the end of the year 2018, H.R. 504 and all legislation will have to be reintroduced to the 116th Congress 2019. It would be great if Rolling Thunder® members would put pressure on their representatives to get the POW/MIA flag to fly ALL DAYS over the U.S. Capitol and U.S. White House.

We must continue to "press" forward by doing our part to keep our concerns/issues on the "doorstep" of our MOC's as well as continue to seek support with getting the Bills/Legislation we support to the "floor" for a vote! This is very important for our American POW/MIA's, Veterans' and our organization! Please keep in mind that these Bills/Legislation will "die" at the conclusion of the 115th Congress which will cause these Bills/Legislation to have to be reintroduced during the 116th Congress! Please continue to make contact with your MOC's by visiting their offices and writing letter requesting for the support (if they are not already a cosponsor), or request they request that the Bills/Legislation are taken to the "floor" for a vote! Might I suggest that you contact and or send letters to Representative Paul Ryan, Speaker of the House, Senator Mitch McConnell, Majority Leader as well as members (preferable Ranking, Majority and Minority Leaders) who "sit" on a Committee where these Bills/Legislation currently "sit" stagnate! Please continue to follow the Bills/Legislation that we currently support and check for any updates. We are continuing to "push" the following pieces of legislation:

H. Res. 129 - Calling on the Department of Defense, other elements of the Federal Government, and foreign governments to intensify efforts to investigate, recover, and identify all missing and unaccounted-for personnel of the United States. ### Pueblo Crew Tells Trump to Bring Their Warship Home from North Korea

Fox News 23 Sep 2018 By Lucas Tomlinson

(Note: I remember this time well. I was 14 at the time. My Dad was a Master Sargent in the Air Force and, while he didn't serve any time in VietNam, he was sent to South Korea near the DMZ for a year after the incident with the Pueblo happened.)

Some of the surviving crew members of an American spy ship captured by North Korean forces 50 years ago have a message for President Trump: bring our warship home.

"The crew of the USS Pueblo would like to get our ship returned," Ron Berens, the lead helmsman on board and at the wheel on January 23, 1968 when North Korean MiG fighter jets and patrol boats opened fire on the American spy ship, leading to the first capture of a U.S. Navy ship since the War of 1812.

"We would like them to deliver it to Lake Pueblo," said Bob Hill, a 19-year-old deck seaman at the time and one of the youngest on board.

One crew member was killed and the 82 others were taken captive and held for 11 months in North Korean prisons, enduring hours of torture roughly 10 days after departing from Japan on espionage missions against the Soviet Union and North Korea.

"There's nothing in the current history books about the Pueblo," Berens said in an interview with Fox News during a gathering of roughly 40 surviving Pueblo crewmembers on the 50th anniversary of their capture this week in Pueblo, Colo., the ship's namesake.

Today, the Pueblo remains a commissioned U.S. Navy ship on display in the Potong River inside North Korea's capital Pyongyang, where the refurbished American spy ship hosts thousands of visitors a year. It's an episode in history largely overshadowed in a year dominated by the Vietnam War, the assassinations of Dr. Martin Luther King and Robert F. Kennedy, the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia and the Apollo 8 launch.

An even deadlier incident occurred a year later when a North Korean MiG-21 shot down a U.S. Navy reconnaissance aircraft, killing all 31 Americans onboard.

January 23, 1968 began with anxiety for the Pueblo crew with their ship just 14 miles off the coast of North Korea. The day prior, a number of communist vessels had approached the American spy ship to take photos venturing too close for comfort.

The North Korean patrol boats and sub chasers had remained and around lunchtime Sunday began firing on the Pueblo after being joined by a pair of North Korean MiGs overhead.

Bob Hill was lying in his rack when he heard general quarters sound, sending the crew to their battle stations. Hill was told to help destroy top secret material on board because the crew quickly found themselves surrounded.

Tim Harris, a young supply officer on board Pueblo, said the North Koreans quickly surrounded the American spy ship and opened fire with machine guns and 40-mm cannon.

The American crew tried to escape, but the North Korean vessels were relentless. After signaling the Americans to stop or "heave to" and with their ship badly disabled due to the debilitating fire, the North Korean patrol boats swooped in and jumped aboard. "We never surrendered. We stopped the ship. There was never an order to surrender," Harris said. "We had taken so much fire."

"We were scared s***less," Bob Hill said recalling the feeling of seeing North Korean sailors taking him and his 82 crewmembers captive and bringing them to the port city of Wonsan.

"They tied us up, blindfolded us. We were all wondering if we were going to die."

Shortly after arriving in North Korea, Hill said the American crew was met with shouts from a mob that had gathered.

"Kill Yankee!" they yelled in English, Hill recalled. The American crew spent their first six weeks in North Korea in Pyongyang before being moved out to the countryside less than an hour from the capital city.

Over the next 11 months the crew was subjected to torture routinely.

"A typical day was met with intermittent terror. If you happened to be caught sleeping you were in a world of pain," Hill said.

The crew learned to rely on God as well as one another.

"Your roommates were your biggest help," said Berens.

The surviving crewmembers are split about bringing the ship back saying President Trump has more important issues to worry about such as getting North Korea to scrap its nuclear weapons program. "It's still a slap in the face to us every day that it's still commissioned," Hill said. "That bothers me a great deal."

When North Korea turned Pueblo into a museum and communist propaganda piece, "I prayed when they opened that thing with all their military officers on board, we could drop a MOAB [Mother of all Bombs] or something on them and blow the whole damn thing up."

He added: "Decommission that damn thing." Ron Berens disagrees.

"If they decommission the ship Americans would lose face," Berens said. "That's total surrender."

"That is a hunk of metal. The crew is right here," Hill said about the survivors that have gathered this week in Pueblo, Colo.

"The spirit of that ship is right here today at the reunion," agreed Harris.

Cmdr. Josh Hill, a 2001 U.S. Naval Academy graduate currently assigned to the Pentagon, echoed his father's sentiment.

"Nothing would mean more to the crew than having Pueblo returned to the U.S. for a proper decommissioning ceremony," he said.

Surviving Pueblo crewmembers also want their skipper recognized for his heroism in leading all 82 men through 11 months of captivity. When they returned to the United States in December 1968, they were cheered by crowds in San Diego.

Back in Washington, Navy brass demanded a court-martial to investigate why Pueblo's commanding officer, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, allowed his crew to be captured by North Korea. Charges were dropped weeks later because the Navy secretary felt Bucher had suffered enough, according to Berens.

To this day, Bucher has not received any valor award for his actions, despite the crew receiving Purple Hearts for their wounds suffered in captivity and during the attack at sea.

"It was his leadership under extreme circumstances that we survived," Harris said.

Many Pueblo crew members want Cmdr. Bucher to be awarded the Medal of Honor.

"I wouldn't be here today if it were not for Commander Bucher," said Navy Cmdr. Josh Hill, who added that when he was commissioned in the U.S. Navy in May 2001, Cmdr. Bucher performed a special private ceremony at the Naval Academy's Memorial Hall -- under Oliver Hazard Perry's battle flag: "Don't Give Up the Ship."

Fox News' Andrew O'Reilly contributed to this report.

Much More Than Words

At a dedication ceremony during which a Bible translated into a local African language was presented, the area chief was presented with his own copy. In appreciation, he lifted the Bible to the skies and exclaimed, "Now we know God understands our language! We can read the Bible in our own native mother-tongue."

No matter our language, our heavenly Father understands it. But often we feel unable to express our deepest longings to Him. The apostle Paul encourages us to pray regardless of how we feel. Paul speaks of our suffering world and our own pain: "The whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth" (Romans 8:22), and he compares that to the Holy Spirit's work on our behalf. "The Spirit helps us in our weakness," he writes. "We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans" (v. 26).

God's Holy Spirit knows us intimately. He knows our longings, our heart-language, and our unspoken words, and He helps us in our communication with God. His Spirit draws us to be transformed into the image of God the Son (v. 29).

Our heavenly Father understands our language and speaks to us through His Word. When we think our prayers are weak or too short, His Holy Spirit helps us by speaking through us to the Father. He yearns for us to talk with Him in prayer.

Thank You, Lord, for understanding my language and innermost longings. When my prayers are weak and dry, bear me up through Your Spirit. When we feel weak in our prayers, God's Spirit helps us in ways we can't imagine.

I was prepared to fight, prepared to die. But I was not prepared for my country to leave me behind.

There has been some progress on the POW/MIA awareness initiative with the Chair of Honor being dedicated in the Emancipation Hall on Nov. 8, 2017 but we need to further respect and honor those who did not come home from all previous wars by flying the POW/MIA flag over the U.S. Capitol and White House on ALL DAYS that the American flag is displayed.
