Agent Orange—The Silent Serial Killer - October is Agent Orange Awareness Month

October brings visions of cider, warm sweaters, shorter days and time with our families. The colors of foliage quickly turn to yellows, reds, and orange. For people suffering the long lasting effects of the herbicide Agent Orange, which was sprayed as a part of Operation Ranch Hand during the Vietnam War, October is a yearly reminder of the need for continued Agent Orange education. October is Agent Orange Awareness Month.

Government Affairs - Berney Jarosz

This is from June:

Louisiana U.S. District Judge Robert Summerhays officially ordered a temporary restraining order on April 27th, on what was to be the termination of Title 42, the U.S. health code that has allowed the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) to expel migrants who seek asylum over the last two years of the COVID-19 pandemic. The order will be in effect for 14 days. The judge had previously released a memo earlier this week signaling his intent to issue the order. The seldom-used public health code was enacted by the Trump administration at the start of the pandemic and continued under Biden. Migrants who would have been allowed to seek asylum after the end of Title 42 on May 23 will continue being expeditiously removed to other countries for now. The restraining order prevents any action by DHS, such as processing migrants under immigration law instead of Title 42, before the next court hearing scheduled for May 13. Why is this in a Government /Veterans Affairs report you might ask. On April 27, Department of Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas testified that he was talking with VA Secretary Denis McDonough about using VA medical staff to assist U.S. border officials, who are encountering more people illegally crossing the border than at any point in the past two decades. The Biden administration has walked back plans to send Veterans Affairs medical staff from around the country to the southern border following an outcry from Republicans, who raised the fear that veterans would lack care. Department of Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas disclosed during a hearing Wednesday before the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee that talks with VA Secretary Denis McDonough had ended. Two bills were sent to Congress to be read H.R. 7637 and S. 4082 "To prohibit the use by the Department of Veterans Affairs of funds to provide emergency assistance at the southern border of the United States resulting from the repeal of certain public health orders, and for other purposes." I sent letters stating Rolling Thunder® Inc.'s support of these bills.

Government and Veteran Affairs issues Rolling Thunder® Inc. National is currently working on: Right now, we are supporting S. 4082 /H.R. 7637 companion bills in Congress "To prohibit the use by the Department of Veterans Affairs of funds to provide emergency assistance at the southern border of the United States resulting from the repeal of certain public health orders, and for other purposes." Note: Neither Ohio senator (Brown or Portman) have signed onto this bill (as of when I looked on 10/12/22), and only one Ohio Congressman has signed on. Contact your representatives to get involved!!!!

Staying in contact with our Congressmen and the Department of Veterans Affairs to push the issue of opening up our VA hospitals and care facilities for visitation to the PTSD and CLC wards. Gus has been in contact with the Subcommittee on Disability Assistance and Memorial Affairs to set up a hearing for H.R. 5297

"National POW/MIA Memorial/Museum" and move to the House floor for a vote. This bill designates the memorial and museum that is being constructed on an approximately 26-acre area on the POW-MIA Memorial Parkway in Jacksonville, Florida, as the National POW/MIA Memorial and Museum.

Honoring our PACT Act

The United States Department of Veterans Affairs routinely denies the vast majority of claims for a long list of cancers and other maladies linked to toxic exposure. It took 50 years for the VA to accept all the conditions caused by Agent Orange in Vietnam, and history is repeating itself, pulmonologist Dr. Anthony Szema said. "That's putting all the soldiers who actually have constrictive bronchiolitis in a quagmire - that they're never going to get diagnosed and they're never going to get treated," Szema said. Szema, who directs the International Center of Excellence in Deployment Health and Medical Geosciences, says he is glad the Biden administration has been adding new illnesses to the VA's list of diagnoses connected to burn pits. Biden added several more in his first State of the Union address this month but at this piecemeal rate, Szema said many vets will die of cancer before the VA accepts their claims. "Soldiers have a ticking time bomb that it will get progressively worse over time," he said. The House of Representatives passed a bill this month to change that; the Honoring our PACT Act would make the VA accept 23 illnesses as "presumptive," meaning any vet who was exposed to burn pits and other known toxins would automatically get benefits and treatment for those illnesses. Thirty-four Republicans joined all the House Democrats to pass the bill, but the ranking member of the House Committee on Veterans, opposed the bill, calling it too broad and too expensive. Speaking in Fort Worth, Texas, on Tuesday March 8th, President Biden endorsed the PACT act and the Senate measure, which veterans' advocates fear would use up their momentum on the burn pits issue without fully addressing the 3.5 million veterans who were exposed to them since the first Gulf War.

Note: Signed into law on August 10, 2022

Eligible veterans are those who are enrolled in the VA health care system and have been recommended for participation by a qualified mental health care provider or clinical team. —

Nine New Cancers Added To The Presumed Service- Connected List Related To Particulate Matter

*****

On April 26, VA announced the addition of nine rare respiratory cancers to the list of presumed service-connected disabilities due to exposure to fine particulate matter for Veterans who served any amount of time in

- Afghanistan, Djibouti, Syria or Uzbekistan during the Persian Gulf War, from September 19, 2001, to the present, or
- The Southwest Asia theater of operations from August 2, 1990, to the present.

VA is taking a new approach to making decisions on presumptives, one that takes all available science into account, with one goal in mind - getting today's Veterans, and Vets in the decades ahead - the benefits they deserve, as fast as possible.

VA identified, through a focused review of scientific and medical evidence, a biological plausibility between airborne hazards, specifically particulate matter, and carcinogenesis of the respiratory tract; the unique circumstances of these rare cancers warrant a presumption of service connection. Veterans and survivors who had claims previously denied for any of the below respiratory cancers are encouraged to file a supplemental claim for benefits:

- Squamous cell carcinoma of the larynx;
- Squamous cell carcinoma of the trachea;
- Adenocarcinoma of the trachea;
- Salivary gland-type tumors of the trachea;
- Adenosquamous carcinoma of the lung;
- Large cell carcinoma of the lung;
- Salivary gland-type tumors of the lung;
- Sarcomatoid carcinoma of the lung and;
- Typical and atypical carcinoid of the lung.

VA will contact impacted Veterans and survivors to inform them about their eligibility and it will provide information on how to apply.

To apply for benefits, Veterans and survivors may visit VA.gov or call toll-free at 800-827-1000.

Will You Still Love Me?

Ten-year-old Lyn-Lyn had finally been adopted, but she was afraid. In the orphanage where she'd grown up, she was punished over the slightest mistake. Lyn-Lyn asked her adoptive mom, who was a friend of mine: "Mommy, do you love me?" When my friend replied yes, Lyn-Lyn asked, "If I make a mistake, will you still love me?"

Although unspoken, some of us might ask that same question when we feel we've disappointed God: "Will You still love me?" We know that as long as we live in this world, we'll fail and sin at times. And we wonder, Do my mistakes affect God's love for me?

John 3:16 assures us of God's love. He gave His Son, Jesus, to die on our behalf so that if we believe in Him, we'll receive eternal life. But what if we fail Him even after we place our trust in Him? That's when we need to remember that "Christ died for us" even when we were still sinners (Romans 5:8). If He could love us at our worst, how can we doubt His love today when we're His children?

When we sin, our Father lovingly corrects and disciplines us. That's not rejection (8:1); that's love (Hebrews 12:6). Let's live as God's beloved children, resting in the blessed assurance that His love for us is steadfast and everlasting.
